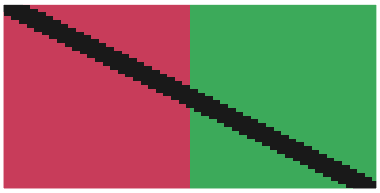
The page background is a VML rectangle filled with a picture.
Word stretches the picture over the whole rectangle, behind this text.

Inline rectangles filled with the logo, stroke off:

End of the first page.

Header text beside the logo rectangle



The second page has no background: the header logo shows.