Sole Bidding Organisation

You are a sole bidding organisation if you are the only organisation bidding for this contract as part of your submission. You may intend to use subcontractors, consultants or other partner organisation to deliver against the requirements of the contract, but you do not need to identify them in your response*. Your organisation will be entirely liable to the Council for the delivery of the requirements of the contract.

*Exception: where sub-contractors will play a significant role in the delivery of the services (e.g. more than 50%) please refer to Section 1.1

Consortia, Partnerships and Joint Venture

If you are quoting for this contract on behalf of a consortium, partnership or joint venture, the following information must be provided:

Full details of the consortium partnership or joint venture, and

Information sought in this SAQ in respect of each of the consortia, partnership or joint venture constituent members as part of a single response

Where Suppliers are proposing to create a separate corporate entity, they should provide details of the actual or proposed percentage shareholding of the constituent members within the consortium in a separate Schedule. If a consortium is not proposing to form a corporate entity, full details of alternative proposed arrangements should be provided in the Schedule. However, please note the Authority reserves the right to require a successful consortium to form a single legal entity in accordance with Regulation 63 of the Public Contracts Regulations 2015.

If there is a subsequent change in the consortium partnership or joint venture, you must inform the Authority immediately.

Special Purpose Vehicles

You are a special purpose vehicle ("SPV") if you have formed (or will form) a new legal entity for the purpose of bidding for this contract, with the intention that this organisation will be awarded the contract. In addition the member organisations of the special purpose vehicle will be required to be jointly and severally liable to Council for the delivery of the requirements of the contract, regardless of (i) the value of their contributions in respect of the contract sum, time, volume, quality or any other considerations, or (ii) the future organisational or legal standing of the special purpose vehicle. You must inform the Council of any withdrawal of members of the SPV during or subsequent to the ITQ so that the implications of such a withdrawal may be assessed.
